 you push on to the issues... *

PRIME MINISTER (scanning) OK... I think it needs to be a bit more personal. More about my memories of the camp. And then I to me tonight, and I'll re-draft and bring it in tomorrow. *

VILJAR
OK, so in Svalbard everyone is welcome, regardless of nationality.
We've got Norwegians, Russians, Chinese, Croatians. All living and working together.

AUF MEMBER 1
Yes, but you only have a couple thousand people, how does that translate across Europe?

THE PST DIRECTOR, SECURITY OFFICIAL LARS, PM AIDE 2 OYSTEIN

PST DIRECTOR Unrest in the Middle East continues. More Islamist terror, of course. But our main issue is going to be the resulting refugee crisis.
The UNHCR is now forecasting a massive surge in migrant numbers trying to reach Europe.

Angle on the document: huge migrant figures from the Middle East and North Africa.

PRIME MINISTER Potentially what - several million over the next five years?

*
*

AIDE OYSTEIN Easily. It depends on political instability in the Middle East.
Syria etc..

*
*
*

PRIME MINISTER
And the challenge is going to be how we protect inclusive domestic policies with numbers like these.

*
*

SECURITY OFFICIAL LARS
And it's going to hit us right as we deal with the fallout from the banking crisis.

A massive explosion in the

AIDE MARIT Is this gas? A gas explosion? *

AIDE OYSTEIN
That's not a gas explosion, that's a bomb. It's got to be a bomb. *

On PM as he surveys pictures of the damage. On air speculation about the status of the government. *

SECURITY OFFICIAL LARS (enters, to comms)
Can we get an update on security at the Residency please? *

PRIME MINISTER
This is obviously a terrorist attack. We need to secure government. Call the cabinet. I yet what caused it, but many of you have parents who work there, so you should probably call them, if you haven't already.

TORJE looks up at VILJAR.

MOTHER UTØYA

In the meantime, we're suspending

VILJAR pulls out his phone. Starts to dial. As kids question too?

BREIVIK

You're my lawyer. You're an exception.

*
*

LIPPESTAD

Mr. Breivik, the police believe you have another attack planned.

*
*

BREIVIK

The third attack.

LIPPESTAD

I need to strongly advise you, as your lawyer, to not do anything which might cost more innocent lives and make your situation worse.

*
*
*
*
*
*

BREIVIK

But Norway has been woken. Now she can be saved. You want to save her too, don't you, in her hour of need?

*
*
*
*
*

Hold on LIPPESTAD.

CUT TO:

102 INT. BREIVIK'S MOTHER'S HOME - NIGHT

102

BREIVIK'S MOTHER watches the news.

Her phone rings.

BREIVIKS MOTHER

Hello?

VOICE

Police. Please come to the door.

*

BREIVIKS MOTHER

Police? What's this about?

*

DELTA COMMANDER

Open it now.

*

The line cuts.

She goes to the door. Opens it to reveal:

Dazzling light.

Armed DELTA OFFICERS.

*

As she's led away, DELTA and FORENSICS move into the apartment. We follow them into Breivik's bedroom. To his computer.

On the screen: Breivik's manifesto.

CUT TO:

103 INT. OSLO POLICE STATION - CORRIDOR / INTERROGATION ROOM -103 NIGHT

*

BREIVIK and LIPPESTAD are led into a small interrogation room.

*

*

They sit alone in silence. A one-way glass window. They're being watched.

*

LIPPESTAD

You're not obliged to answer their questions.

*

BREIVIK

OK. I know.

*

*

BREIVIK spots a camera in the corner of the room.

BREIVIK (CONT'D)

Will the media get access to this?
I look like an idiot.

*

*

*

LIPPESTAD

No.

*

*

BREIVIK fixes his hair.

*

A WOMAN enters.

*

FEMALE DETECTIVE

*

(as she sits)

*

Mr Breivik, my name is Detective Anderson. I am a detective at the Homicide and Serious Crimes Unit. My job is to get as much information as possible about what happened today. Do you understand you've been arrested in connection with the explosion in Oslo, and the shooting on Utøya Island?

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

BREIVIK

Yes, of course.

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

Can you tell me how you planned these attacks?

*
*
*

BREIVIK

I can tell you 98%. I've been planning this for a long time. Two years ago I decided to take action. I sold my digital businesses. I bought a farm and devoted myself to the mission. Mental training. Physical training. Regular target practice. Honing my skills. Buying supplies. Carrying out reconnaissance.

*
*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

What about the bomb?

BREIVIK

I built it myself. Everything I needed was online. Do you want me to go into detail? That's going to take hours. It was a lot of work.

*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

Did anyone help you?

*
*

BREIVIK

I am just one cog in a network. The Knight's Templar Europe. Named in honour of the Knights of the Crusade. Our organisation was set up in London in 2002 with delegates from 12 countries. We want Islam out of Europe.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

Can you give me any other names?

*
*

BREIVIK

Of course not.

*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

We have found your computer, at your mother's apartment. Can you tell me what's on it?

*

BREIVIK

My manifesto. 1500 pages. It explains everything.

*
*

(MORE)

BREIVIK (CONT'D)

So people will understand what I've done. It's all there. You see I'm an intellectual, as well as a warrior.

*
*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

You sent it to 8,000 people. Did any of them help you?

*
*

BREIVIK

They are sympathisers.

*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

Did any of them assist you?

*

No answer.

DETECTIVE ANDERSON (CONT'D)

I need to know if any more attacks are planned.

*
*

BREIVIK

This is a war. Attacks can come at any moment. But you need to agree to my demands.

*
*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

This isn't a negotiation.

*

BREIVIK

I don't believe you're in a position to dictate terms, Detective.

DETECTIVE ANDERSON

Haven't enough people died? I need to know if there are any more attacks coming.

*
*
*

BREIVIK

(beat)

I'd like to break now. I've been trying to get medical attention since you arrested me.

*
*
*

He shows a small cut on his finger.

BREIVIK (CONT'D)

I cut it on a piece of someone's skull when it shattered. I might get an infection unless it's treated.

LIPPESTAD Can we pause the interview whilst my client is seen by a medic?

DETECTIVE ANDERSON turns off the tape. A moment between them.
They both know they are dancing to Breivik's tune.

to him. *

CUT TO:

106 INT. OSLO POLICE STATION - INTERROGATION ROOM - NIGHT 106 *

LIPPESTAD watches BREIVIK eating pizza. A can of coke. *
DETECTIVE ANDERSON enters. *

DETECTIVE ANDERSON *
(sitting)
The Prime Minister has seen your * demands. He can't accept your * terms. But he wants me to give you * a message. *

BREIVIK *
Really, he said that? *

DETECTIVE ANDERSON
 It was a personal message. He says he wants you to know he's listening to you.

*
 *
 *
 *

This lands.

BREIVIK looks at the window, studying the dark glass.

BREIVIK
 He's in there, isn't he? Watching us.

*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON
 We need to know if another attack is coming.

*
 *

BREIVIK
 (eventually) Tell him I'm prepared to call off the attacks. For the moment.

*

DETECTIVE ANDERSON
 And how do we know we can trust you?

*

BREIVIK
 Because you're all listening to me now.

 VOLUNTEERS. CHRISTIN watches SVEINN come back. He expression desolate.

SVEINN
 Simon and Anders are dead.

CHRISTIN hangs her head. Moments pass.

*

Her phone rings.

HOSPITAL REP
 (V.O.)
 Christin Kristofferson?

CHRISTIN
 Yes?

HOSPITAL REP

(V.O.)

This is Ulleval Hospital in Oslo.
Does Viljar have any birth marks or

CHRISTIN

He has a bad scar on his neck. A

We need you to come immediately.

TRAUMA SURGEON

Viljar has very severe injuries. He has a gunshot wound to the head and there is shrapnel still in his brain. If he survives, we will need to operate again very soon. *

They go into a bare hospital room.

See VILJAR. No signs of life. Just the soft bleep of machines.

CHRISTIN gently touches his hand. As though for the first time. Begins to weep, despite herself. *

CHRISTIN

(to SURGEON)

Can I touch him? *

(to VILJAR) *

Viljar? Mum and Dad are here now. *

CUT TO: *

AIDE

(knocks, enters)

The Press are waiting upstairs, Sir. *

PRIME MINISTER

One moment.

*

He splashes his face with water. Straightens his tie. Tries to think of words to say. Then his phone rings.

SECURITY OFFICIAL

We've got the final number... 8 dead in Oslo. 69 on Utøya.

*

*

PRIME MINISTER

Wounded?

*

*

SECURITY OFFICIAL

At least 200.

*

*

PRIME MINISTER

Thank you.

*

*

The line cuts. Leaving the PM, alone with his reflection.

*

He leaves the bathroom. In one shot he goes up the stairs, through the kitchen, still crowded with AIDES manning the crisis. Across the living room, towards the front door. As he reaches it, the door opens to reveal: a MASS OF CAMERAS.

The PM takes a moment under the harsh arc lights. Then:

PRIME MINISTER (CONT'D)

We are all shocked. This was an attack on our government, and on our children. We are a long way from understanding why. But what is clear is that our nation has been attacked by someone who would see it changed...

As he speaks, we begin a montage of archive: Norway responds. The Cathedral, the Rose March, the first funerals attended by thousands. The PM embracing SURVIVORS, PARENTS, COMMUNITY LEADERS including MUSLIMS. Grief, love and unity.

...He would see our democracy become tyranny. See our humanity fall... We must not give in to this terror. We must fight. But we must not become changed. Instead, we must strengthen our values. We must fight this terror with the rule of law, not the barrel of the gun. We must answer the hate of the few, with love the of the many. Only then will it be beaten...

(beat)

(MORE)

PRIME MINISTER (CONT'D)
 Because though evil can kill a human being, it can never conquer a people.

It's a rousing call to arms.

	LIPPESTAD watches as BREIVIK enters.
	BREIVIK turns to face the JUDGE, PROSECUTION and DEFENSE lawyers. Each determined to uphold the system he has sworn to destroy; each his enemy, including the man pledged to defend him.

BREIVIK
Where are all the cameras?

JUDGE motions to the PROSECUTION.

*

INGA (stands)
Your Honour, police have charged Mr. Breivik with two counts of terrorism, according to Penal Code 174a. Investigations are on-going and we request that Mr. Breivik be held in custody while this work

JUDGE turns to LIPPESTAD.

LIPPESTAD
The Defense accepts this, Your Honour.

JUDGE ARTNZEN (takes a note) How is the Defendant intending to plead?

See BREIVIK.

BREIVIK
I acknowledge these crimes but I am

HARD CUT TO:

112 INT. ILA PRISON - HOLDING ROOM - DAY

BREIVIK
I had a very happy upbringing. I half-sister and I are not particularly close but we speak occasionally.

*
*
*

*
*

LIPPESTAD
What about your father?

*

BREIVIK
I haven't seen him since I was 16.
I spoke to him a couple of years ago. But there was really no time to meet. He lived in France and I was focused on my career, my internet businesses.

*

*

*

*

LIPPESTAD
How would you describe your relationship with your mother?

BREIVIK
It's good you know. Normal. My mother had nothing to do with this.
She's really not relevant.

*

*

LIPPESTAD
It's about understanding what led you to do this.

BREIVIK
How many children do you have, Mr.
Lippestad?

*

LIPPESTAD
(caught off guard) Five.

*

BREIVIK
And you love them?

LIPPESTAD (uncomfortable) Of course.

BREIVIK
I wanted to hit them where it would hurt the most.

ØYSTEIN. *

PRIME MINISTER

He buys 900 kilos of fertiliser and aluminum nitrate, and no red flags? *

HEAD OF PST

Sir, our focus has been on Islamist terror. Foreign threats. *

PRIME MINISTER

But we know the Far-Right is growing fast. *

HEAD OF PST

We can't stop every threat. We did the best we could. *

PRIME MINISTER

We should have done much better. I want to upgrade our national security. Intelligence. Defence.
Policing. Everything. And I'm ordering a public inquiry. An inquiry into what happened and how we responded. Something went badly wrong. And we need to find out what. It's the only way we'll get Ok, thanks. She'll appreciate that. *

Bye. *

Then he calls Torje's school. *

Lastly, he calls work. *

SVEINN (CONT'D) *

work to Erik? And make sure the new mercury data gets put into the

(beat) *

We've just got to take it one day at a time. *

He hangs up and watches the TV as BREIVIK'S FATHER gives an interview: *

BREIVIK'S FATHER *

I haven't seen Anders in years. I am appalled... I think it would have been better if he had just killed himself. *

SVEINN walks away.

CUT TO:

119 INT. ULLEVAL HOSPITAL - VILJAR'S ICU ROOM - CONTINUOUS 119

(to CHRISTIN)
You OK?

CHRISTIN
Yeah. I'm fine.

The LEAD SURGEON enters.

See them struggling to keep it together.

Through an angle in the window, we see VILJAR brought back from theatre.

LEAD SURGEON Viljar's in recovery. I'm afraid we couldn't get all the shrapnel. It was too deep. We'll have to wait for him to wake up, before we can assess the damage. Our concern right now is infection. We've put him on some strong antibiotics, and we're monitoring him closely. But there's nothing more we can do for Viljar now. He needs to wake up.

young.

Insert: LIPPESTAD looks at ABB's SOCIAL SERVICES FILES.

VIBEKE DEF LAWYER
His mother couldn't cope. She wrote to Social Services asking for help.
They put Breivik under psychiatric observation. They had serious doubts about his mother's capacity to parent.

LIPPESTAD
And his father?

VIBEKE DEF. LAWYER
After the marriage collapsed, his father cut him off.

*
*

LIPPESTAD
And the half-sister?

*

Insert: LIPPESTAD looks at a photo of YOUNG BREIVIK.

VIBEKE DEF. LAWYER
She emigrated to California. When he was about 16 I think.

*

VIBEKE DEF. LAWYER
It was just him and his mother after that.

VIBEKE DEF. LAWYER
No, not it's not.

*

INSERT: LIPPESTAD opens a file of crime scene photos. Photos

LIPPESTAD
So what are we talking about here?
Pursuing insanity as a defense?

LIPPESTAD ASSISTANT 2
It's possible.

VIBEKE DEF. LAWYER
How else do we explain it?

CUT TO:

122 INT. BREIVIK'S MOTHER'S HOUSE - DAY 122

LIPPESTAD opposite BREIVIK'S MOTHER. The curtains closed.

LIPPESTAD

My name is Geir Lippestad. I've been appointed by your son to lead his defence. Now I know Anders doesn't have a relationship with his father. So I wanted to ask you some questions. We need to decide how to build his case.

*
*
*
*

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

Yes, of course.

LIPPESTAD

What was Anders like as a child?

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

He was a normal boy. Kind, clever Lots of friends. He loved his mother. I was a single parent after his father left us, but I made sure he had a normal childhood. We had a very nice house.

*
*

LIPPESTAD

Did he have any medical conditions? Any mental health issues?

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

Oh no.

LIPPESTAD

Was he ever violent?

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

Never. He loved me. He loved affection.

LIPPESTAD

Did you have any dealings with social services?

*
*

He sees her hands shaking. She's on the edge.

*
*

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

That was nothing. Welfare state sticking their nose in. I thought I needed their help, but I didn't. He was fine.

*
*

LIPPESTAD

I see.

(beat)

Did you have any sense recently that Anders was having problems?

*
*

BREIVIKS MOTHER

No.

(beat)

I told the police that I saw he had guns in his bedroom. But he told me he needed them for hunting. I believed him.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

Would you consider testifying in Anders' defense?

*
*

BREIVIKS MOTHER

What would I say?

LIPPESTAD

Just that there were problems. In his childhood. It would help him.

*
*

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

But then everyone will know.

*

LIPPESTAD

Anders is entitled to a defense, just like everyone else.

BREIVIKS MOTHER

But I'll be the most hated mother in Norway.

*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

Please consider it.

*
*

LIPPESTAD goes to the door.

BREIVIK'S MOTHER

He's sort of right though, isn't he. About the way the country is going. It's not what it used to be.

CUT TO:

123 INT. ULLEVÅL HOSPITAL - VILJAR'S ICU ROOM - NIGHT

VILJAR still unconscious. CHRISTIN exhausted. Outside SEVERAL DOCTORS confer with SVEINN, obviously concerned.

SVEINN

He should have woken by now. His temperature is up. Might be infection.

*
*
*

They watch the DOCTORS leave.

SVEINN

I'll take Torje back to the hotel.
Will you be OK?

CHRISTIN

I'll be fine.

SVEINN

Call me if anything changes.

CHRISTIN

Can you bring me clothes?

*
*

SVEINN

Sure.

*

TORJE

He told me to go. He told me to leave him!

CHRISTIN

It's okay. You did the right thing.

See TORJE, in anguish.

*

SVEINN

(putting his arm around

Come on.

I was on the island. I'm visiting survivors. How's Viljar?

CHRISTIN

He needs to wake up.

They both look down at VILJAR.

CHRISTIN (CONT'D)

Are you OK?

LARA

I'm fine.

(beat)

My sister didn't make it.

CHRISTIN

I'm so sorry.

She hugs LARA. It's a bit awkward.

CHRISTIN (CONT'D)

What was her name?

LARA

Bano.

A moment between them.

CHRISTIN

She'd be so happy you're alive,
Lara.

SVEINN enters with TORJE, fresh coffee. He looks exhausted.
Sees LARA.

CHRISTIN

This is Lara. She was on the island. She wanted to see how Viljar was doing.

SVEINN

That's kind.

CHRISTIN

Do you know Viljar well?

LARA

No, but everyone knows Viljar. I played against him in the football. He's good!

*
*
*

SVEINN smiles. An awkward silence.

LARA (CONT'D)

I should go.

(beat)

I'll come back when he wakes up.

It's a small but powerful gesture of faith.

CHRISTIN

Thank you.

She turns back to VILJAR, still unconscious.

LIPPESTAD

Hey... Come on, I'll take you up. *

As she gets up: *

SIGNE Who was that? *

LIPPESTAD
Just the office. *

SIGNE
That's the third one tonight. *

See LIPPESTAD. *

LIPPESTAD
Don't answer the phone anymore. And keep the children inside. I'll ask the police to watch the house.
Just for the moment. While people are angry. *

LIPPESTAD opposite BREIVIK.

LIPPESTAD
 My recommendation is that you plead insanity. You will be assessed by psychiatrists. The court will decide whether to accept their diagnosis. If they do, you'll go to hospital for treatment. Not jail.

BREIVIK
 People will be very angry.

LIPPESTAD
 It's the law.

BREIVIK
 Will I be able to address the court?

LIPPESTAD
 You will have the same rights as any other defendant.

BREIVIK
 Okay. We're decided then.

He goes to the door, presses a button to be let out.

BREIVIK (CONT'D)
 Geir, are you OK?

LIPPESTAD
 Fine, thank you.

BREIVIK
 You see why I chose you.

See LIPPESTAD. He leaves.

Viljar can you hear me?

SVEINN wakes. He and TORJE staring at VILJAR.

DR. SORHEIM
Do you believe you are a monster?

BREIVIK
No. But I know that you do.

DR. HUSBY
You know what I'm thinking?

DR. HUSBY
Do you know or do you think you

BREIVIK
I know. And there's a difference.

DR. HUSBY
Do you think people can read your

BREIVIK
Sometimes. I think they try.

DR. HUSBY
Did you feel like that before the

BREIVIK
It's not new. But it got worse when

And I need to be judged for what I did.

LIPPESTAD
You'll go to prison. For the rest of your life.

BREIVIK
I have to finish what I started.
Standing up in the court. I have to stand up for what I believe in.
That's the third attack. That's the whole point of this. That is how I win.

He wants to change his defense. He wants to plead guilty.

LIPPESTAD ASSISTANT 1
Has he given any reason? I mean, why?

*
*

LIPPESTAD
He wants to stay in control.

*

VIBEKE DEF LAWYER
And he knows the consequences?

*

LIPPESTAD
He wants to stand up and be accountable for his actions.

*
*
*

LIPPESTAD ASSISTANT 2 It's going to be very hard. The psychiatric assessment was clear.
He's been diagnosed insane. And the Prosecution are legally obliged to stick with it. So how do we get around that?

*
*
*
*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

Ok so we have to start again. To show that he knew what he was doing. Every step of the way. That only someone rational could have planned and executed something this complex. And we have to look into the Far-Right. Find witnesses who share his beliefs. So we can show that he's not alone in his views.
 That's the only way we can do this.

We need to generate new ideas. New

VILJAR
(he shrugs)
My head hurts. All the time. And my shoulder.
(beat)
I get phantom pain...

SECOND DOCTOR
That's natural.

See VILJAR, it doesn't feel natural to him.

SECOND DOCTOR (CONT'D)
This is going to be a long recovery, Viljar. The bullet fragments are less than a tenth of a millimeter from the major nerve centres in your brain. The slightest movement-

VILJAR

 I know what the fucking dangers are.

LIPPESTAD sits in front of a white man (40s).

*

LIPPESTAD
 My client Anders Breivik writes about you in his manifesto. He obviously admires you.

*
 *

EXTREMIST
 Many people admire me. But it's not me they admire. It's my ideas about the world.

*
 *
 *

LIPPESTAD
 Did you ever meet him?

EXTREMIST

He asked. But I'm careful who I work with. What I do, who I meet.

(beat)

He's not from round here you know.
He's from your end of town. But yes, we share the same vision for the world.

*
*

LIPPESTAD

He says a war is coming.

EXTREMIST

I'd say it's already started...

LIPPESTAD

Are you a member of the Knight's Templar?

EXTREMIST

There are many other organisations.

LIPPESTAD

The Nordic Resistance Movement?

*

EXTREMIST

All across Scandinavia. Northern Europe. We're strong in eastern Europe too of course. Very strong in the UK too. New groups forming all the time.

*
*
*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

How about America?

*

EXTREMIST

Stormfront. Growing fast. Very fast. And joining up with us here in Europe.

*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

How do you communicate?

EXTREMIST

Where you can't see us. In chat rooms. The Dark Web. Lippestad, with every al-Qaeda attack, we grow in strength. Every migrant boat that crosses the Med, more people join. There's a lot of fear and anger out there... And that's why, tomorrow will belong to us.

know what to expect from the trial.

*

SVEINN
You should go.

CHRISTIN *
Sveinn. *

SVEINN *
What? *

CHRISTIN
We both need to engage with this.
It's important.

SVEINN Engaging nearly cost our sons their lives.

CHRISTIN
They're still here.

SVEINN Are they?
(beat) I don't care about him. I don't care about Anders fucking Breivik and his trial. And I just want us * to get on with our lives. That's *

VILJAR

Hi. Sorry. I didn't see you.

SIMON'S FATHER

That's OK. I don't want to disturb you.

VILJAR

It's fine.

*

SIMON'S FATHER

How are you?

VILJAR

I'm OK. It's taking a while. You know... I'm sorry. I meant to visit. How are you? How's Tone?

*

*

SIMON'S FATHER

It's tough.

VILJAR

Yeah.

SIMON'S FATHER

Listen, we're going ice-fishing this weekend. To Simon's spot.
Would you like to come? There's plenty of room in the cabin.

*
*
*

VILJAR

Thanks... I... Can I let you know?

SIMON'S FATHER

Sure.

He looks disappointed.

VILJAR

Sorry. I will come. I'm just...
It's just a bit...

It's OK. I understand.

Viljar stands, painfully.

He leaves.

VILJAR goes to TORJE's door. *

VILJAR (CONT'D) *
Torje, talk to me. *

TORJE *

CUT TO:

194

INT. TROMSO - HOTEL/MEETING ROOM - DAY

194

Follow CHRISTIN towards a room, crowded with PARENTS and their LAWYERS. She pauses outside. Hears a loud argument in progress. She opens the door and slips into the back as the argument rages.

PARENT 1

I just don't see how it can be right that he's allowed to speak. My daughter can't leave her bedroom because of him. He broke her, and now he gets to stand up there and tell us how he did it.

FAMILY LAWYER

The court has to observe his rights.

PARENT 1

But he doesn't deserve rights!

PARENT 2

He's trying to use this trial as a platform for his propaganda.

FAMILY LAWYER

I will be there to ensure that doesn't happen.

PARENT 2

But it is happening. That's exactly what he's doing.

FAMILY LAWYER

Look, the judge is letting us bring our own psychiatric experts, and we're closing the trial with victim impact statements-

PARENT 3

They should just hang him.

FAMILY LAWYER

Listen, I promise you, we will have our chance to-

PARENT 3

But it's not enough! This isn't justice! They should just string him up. Be done with it.

See CHRISTIN. Finally she can't take it anymore.

CHRISTIN
 (to everyone)
 Our children won't get justice by executing him.
 (beat)
 I know you're angry. I'm angry too.
 And my sons came back. Many of your children didn't. But we can't surrender to our anger, no matter how much we feel it. Somehow we have to learn to trust the world again. To trust each other. We have to reconnect. And that begins when we walk into that courtroom.
 (beat)
 Our power will come from how we respond to this man. Not in how we silence him. We have to trust in justice. That's the only way we'll win.

*
*
*

*

CUT TO:

195 EXT. TROMSO - HOTEL - LATER

195

CHRISTIN by her car.

 Christin!

She hands CHRISTIN a letter.

*

FAMILY LAWYER (CONT'D)
 Would you mind giving this to Viljar?
 (beat)
 I would like him to testify, if you think he's up to it?

*
*
*
*
*

CHRISTIN
 I'll give it to him.

*
*

FAMILY LAWYER Thanks.

CUT TO:

CHRISTIN (OOV)
They want him to testify...

CUT TO:

*

197 INT. SVALBARD - VILJAR'S HOME - LIVING ROOM - LATER 197

Angle on VILJAR out of the window.

TV on in living room.

SVEINN
He doesn't have to do it. We can get the doctor to excuse him.

CHRISTIN
Maybe he needs to.

*
*

SVEINN
What does that mean?

*
*

CHRISTIN
Maybe he needs to face it.

*
*

SVEINN
How do we know it won't set him back?

CHRISTIN
We don't. It's his choice.

CUT TO:

198 EXT. SVALBARD - STREET - BEDROOM - SAME TIME 198

VILJAR gets out phone and dials.

*
*

LARA'S VOICE
Viljar?

VILJAR Hey.

LARA'S VOICE
I was worried about you.

*

VILJAR
I'm fine...
(beat) I just received a letter. They want me to appear. At the trial.

*
*
*
*
*

LARA

Me too.

On Viljar, flash of relief.

LARA (CONT'D)

Do you think you can face him?

Suddenly we're back on the island. Gunfire. Screaming. And the DARK FIGURE looming above.

LARA'S VOICE

Viljar?

VILJAR forces himself back.

VILJAR

Yeah. I'm here.

LARA'S VOICE

I said, do you think you can do it?

VILJAR

I can't even walk down the fucking street.

LARA

Maybe we need to try.

VILJAR

Yeah... I need to think about it.
I'll call you later. Bye.

LARA'S VOICE

Bye.

See VILJAR alone.

A ripple through the room as BREIVIK enters.

LIPPESTAD watches as he is uncuffed. Turns to face the crowded courtroom. Looks at the parents. Going from face-to-face. Then turns and punches the air with a Nazi salute. *

The room recoils with shock. Cameras click.

See LIPPESTAD, he knows the third attack is a call to arms. *

CUT TO:

208 INT. SVALBARD - VILJAR'S HOME - CONTINUOUS 208 *

VILJAR watches Breivik's salute. *

CUT TO:

209 INT. COURTROOM - DAY 1 - DAY 209 *

The JUDGE nods to the Prosecution.

INGA

(stands)

On 22 July 2011, Anders Behring Breivik carried out a dual terror attack taking the lives of 77 innocent people. Hundreds more were injured and left forever scarred by his actions. The facts are clear. First the car bomb, then the mass shooting. There is over-whelming evidence, including his own signed confession. *

(pauses)

So the question is not whether he committed the crime, the question is how should he be judged? *

(MORE)

INGA (CONT'D)

(beat)

Your Honour, the law is clear. If there is any doubt about the sanity of a person accused, we are required by law to request treatment. Not imprisonment.

*
*

LIPPESTAD watches the PARENTS, as they impassively listen.

INGA (CONT'D)

Given the court-ordered, psychiatric diagnosis, the Prosecution believes there is clearly significant doubt as to Anders Behring Breivik's state of mind on 22nd July. Therefore, we request the court to find him guilty, but sentence him to mandatory psychiatric treatment in a secure facility.

*
*
*

INGA sits. The JUDGE nods to LIPPESTAD.

LIPPESTAD

(standing)

Your Honour, we will not seek to deny the crimes committed on July 22nd. However, we will argue that Mr. Breivik was not psychotic during these attacks. Instead, we say he knew exactly what he was doing.

(feels Breivik's eyes on him)

And though it is difficult to comprehend Anders Breivik's view of the world, we will show that he is not alone in his opinions. There are others who think the way he does. Increasing numbers of people, all over the west. His were political acts.

BREIVIK *

(his opening statement) *

I stand here today on behalf of Europeans who are being deprived of their ethnic, indigenous, cultural, and territorial rights.

 *

(beat) *

The Prosecution tell you I am insane. They do this because they fear me. Because I have committed the most sophisticated, the most spectacular, political assassination in Europe since World War Two.

 *

(beat, he turns a page) *

And why? Because Norway, Europe.
These are not real democracies. Is it democratic for a nation not to be consulted about whether it becomes multicultural? To fail to ask your people for permission before welcoming immigrants? To force them to become a minority in their own capital? There can be no democracy whilst the liberal elites in Europe are in power. Democratic struggle is pointless. Many will realise this in the coming decades and pick up arms. Just as I did.

 *

He turns the page. *

Family lawyer LARSEN stands to object. *

FAMILY LAWYER *

The Defendant has said enough, Your Honour.

 *

JUDGE ARTNZEN *

You must hurry up, Mr. Breivik. *

BREIVIK *

statement!

 *

FAMILY LAWYER *

LIPPESTAD

(stands)

Your Honour, the Defendant must be

JUDGE ARTNZEN

(beat)

You may continue, Mr. Breivik.

LIPPESTAD sits uncomfortable. Aware of the parents gaze. A FEW walk out in protest. But MOST remain. Impassive.

BREIVIK

When peaceful revolution is made impossible, then violent revolution is the only option.

LIPPESTAD looks at the PARENTS. Their anger and their powerful dignity. Feels the shame of his position.

215

The PM sits alone in front of the Inquiry panel, STAFF at tables to one side.

GJØRV
Thank you for coming today, Prime Minister.
(beat)
I want to begin by exploring to what extent Government was aware of the threat posed by Anders Behring Breivik prior to his attacks on 22nd July.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*

PRIME MINISTER
The Security Services told me they had no warnings. He operated completely out of sight.

*
*
*

GJORV
He could not have been detected in advance?

*
*

PRIME MINISTER
That is my understanding. Yes.

*
*

GJORV
Prime Minister, our investigation has discovered that Mr. Breivik's purchase of chemicals used in the preparation of the bomb came to the attention of the customs service in January 2011. But this was not acted upon by the Security Services.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*
*

PRIME MINISTER
That is not what I was told, Madam Chair.

*
*
*

GJORV

Can we turn now to the issue of physical security around the Government Quarter itself.

(beat)

It appears from the papers there were proposals discussed inside government to improve physical security around the Prime Minister's Office.

The PM reads.

GJØRV

Were you aware of these discussions?

PRIME MINISTER

In general terms. Yes.

GJORV

So can I ask you why Government did not act?

PRIME MINISTER

There were delays. Concerns that Oslo's city centre would become a closed area. We did not want our Government cut off from the people.

(Beat)

It was a mistake. Clearly.

GJØRV

I see.

PRIME MINISTER

217 INT. COURTROOM - DAY 3 - DAY

217

INGA

Mr Breivik, can I ask you about the Knights Templar? Who are they?

*
*
*

BREIVIK

The Knights Templar are a network.
Patriots, who think the way I do and are willing take up arms just as I did, in order to defend their way of life.

*
*
*
*
*
*

INGA

How big is this network?

*
*

BREIVIK

We have members in every country.
All across the West.

*
*
*

INGA

Mr. Breivik, you told police that this organisation was set up in London in 2002. Is that true?

*
*
*
*

BREIVIK

Yes. After 9/11.

*
*

INGA

Did you attend this first meeting?

*
*

BREIVIK

I did.

*
*

INGA

And what happened?

*
*

BREIVIK

I was given my mission. This mission.

*
*
*

INGA

I see. Why did they pick you?

*
*

BREIVIK

Well don't forget, I was a key
at school.

*
*
*
*

LAUGHTER in the courtroom.

*

INGA

Mr. Breivik, the police have tracked your movements in 2002 and found no evidence that you attended such a meeting. Can you explain this?

BREIVIK

It was a covert meeting.

INGA

But now it is no longer a secret, can you prove this meeting actually took place?

BREIVIK

No comment.

INGA

Can you tell me the names of those who attended the meeting?

BREIVIK

No comment.

INGA

The names of anyone in the Knights Templar?

BREIVIK

I will not betray my brothers.

INGA

Mr. Breivik, it will help your case if you can give us some, any, evidence that the Knights Templar actually exists.

BREIVIK

(with steel)

Here is the problem in society today. Clearly exposed. You say I am mad because I tell you many people out there think and feel as I do. About immigrants. About multiculturalism. But is it my madness or are you, the liberal elites, so out of touch that you don't want to hear what we are saying?

(MORE)

BREIVIK (CONT'D)

And what does it say about you, that rather than listen, you call mad, those of us with whom you disagree?

219 INT. COURTROOM - DAY 3 - DAY

219

*

LIPPESTAD is cross-examining BREIVIK now.

LIPPESTAD

Mr Breivik, can you describe your preparations for the attacks?

BREIVIK

I was meticulous. First, I sold my assets. Then I carefully began to assemble the components of the bomb. I did it very slowly of course, so the authorities wouldn't see me.

*
*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

Can you give me an example?

BREIVIK

Yes. A component of the bomb is found in aspirin tablets. I knew it would raise red flags if I attempted to buy too many packs at one time. So I created a purchasing route, which covered twenty drugstores. It took me four hours to complete. On foot.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*

(MORE)

BREIVIK (CONT'D)

I then waited seven to fourteen days before I began the route again. Month after month. Two packs at a time. I was very careful.

*
*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

Would you say you can feel empathy?

BREIVIK

Yes. I'm a normal person. I'm sane.
There is a distinction between political extremism and insanity.
They are very different things.

*
*
*

(beat)

However, I needed a lot of mental preparation for this mission. I knew these attacks would be highly violent. There was a risk that, through empathy, I might lose my nerve. So I learned an ancient form of meditation. To control my emotions. I used it during the attacks, and I'm using it right now.

*
*
*
*

(beat)

Shall I make this easier for you all? I will forego any appeal, any re-trial, spare the families all for this, if the court finds me sane.

Just say a few words. That's all.

*

CHRISTIN

*

VILJAR

can't talk to strangers? That I'm frightened of dying? I'd rather not go than let him hear that.

*

*

CHRISTIN
The truth doesn't make you weak.

VILJAR
It doesn't make me feel strong.

SVEINN
What is it you want?

*

VILJAR
I want to smash him. Smash him to a bloody pulp. Smash his face in. For what he did to everyone. To Simon and Anders, and Torje, and you. I want to make him see what he's done

LIPPESTAD cross-examines the FAR-RIGHT EXTREMIST. BREIVIK watching closely.

LIPPESTAD

How long have you been active in the politics of the Far-Right in Norway?

*
*
*

EXTREMIST

My whole adult life.

*

LIPPESTAD

And you share Mr. Breivik's opinions on the subject of immigration?

*
*

EXTREMIST

I do.

LIPPESTAD

And you agree with him that multiculturalism is a threat to Europe?

*

EXTREMIST

Absolutely.

*

LIPPESTAD

Are you aware of others who share these opinions?

EXTREMIST

Many people. I would say millions.
Wouldn't you?

*
*

See BREIVIK, vindicated.

*

LIPPESTAD

Have you ever met the Defendant?

EXTREMIST

I've met him online.

LIPPESTAD

Online?

How did the defendant strike you?

*
*

EXTREMIST
He liked to lead missions online.
To strategise.

*
*
*

LIPPESTAD
Was he rational?

EXTREMIST Perfectly.

*

LIPPESTAD

EXTREMIST

LIPPESTAD
I have no more questions.

INGA stands, to begin the Prosecution's cross-examination.

INGA
Was Mr. Breivik your leader?

*

EXTREMIST No.

*

INGA
You wouldn't follow Mr. Breivik?

EXTREMIST
I think others in our movement are better qualified than him.

*
*

INGA Stronger than Mr. Breivik?

*

EXTREMIST For sure.

*

See LIPPESTAD glance at BREIVIK.

INGA
Better than Mr. Breivik?

*

EXTREMIST Definitely.

*

INGA

Anders Behring Breivik did?

*

*

EXTREMIST Let me tell you something about our movement. The Alt-Right. The Far-Right. Whatever you want to call

(beat) We're deadly serious. About seizing power. Changing society completely.
About total victory.

INGA So I'll repeat the question. Would you, holding your views - the same views as Mr. Breivik - have done what he did?

She waits.

EXTREMIST
(a beat)
No. I would not.

BREIVIK

betray a brother. Never. You know I looked up to him. I trusted him. I fucking trusted him.

*
*
*

LIPPESTAD

There was no-one else.

BREIVIK

There must be someone who can

She won't do it either.

See BREIVIK. This lands.

BREIVIK

She's weak.

LIPPESTAD

BREIVIK

It's always about her. Always.
Pathetic. Do you know there's not

INT. COURTROOM - DAY 5 - DAY

223

LIPPESTAD and BREIVIK watch as FAMILY LAWYER cross-examines her first PSYCHIATRIC WITNESS.

*

FAMILY LAWYER

Dr. Toov. Please can you outline your qualifications for the court?

FIRST PSYCHIATRIC WITNESS

I'm a Professor of Psychiatry. I have over 30 years of clinical experience. Both here in Norway and abroad. And I have studied carefully the various psychiatric assessments of Mr. Breivik, carried out in prison.

FAMILY LAWYER

In your expert opinion, can you give the court your assessment of Mr. Breivik's state of mind, when he carried out the attacks on the 22 July?

FIRST PSYCHIATRIST WITNESS

It is my opinion that Mr. Breivik suffers from a severe personality disorder. But there is no evidence of clinical psychosis. Of insanity.

See BREIVIK, vindicated.

FIRST PSYCHIATRIST WITNESS (CONT'D)

Of course, Mr. Breivik is a man who lives in a fantasy world. He makes up stories to inflate his own importance. Stories about the Knights Templar, for instance, which clearly does not exist. But these grandiose claims are not delusions. They are lies. Just that. Lies.

FAMILY LAWYER

Lies?

FIRST PSYCHIATRIST WITNESS

Yes. Lies about himself and the way the world is. Lies to try to recruit people to his side. To elevate himself out of his own insignificance. Put simply, he lies as a defense mechanism. To make himself appear less of the failure that inside he feels himself to be.

LIPPESTAD watching BREIVIK closely. Sees a gathering anger.

FAMILY LAWYER

So how would you categorise Mr.
Breivik?

*
*
*

FIRST PSYCHIATRIST WITNESS

In an attempt to categorise the Defendant, to make sense of him, I believe we are missing the point entirely. The truth is simple.
Anders Behring Breivik feels rejected by society. Unloved, ignored, forgotten, and deeply, deeply lonely. And all his overwhelming anger flows from this.

*
*
*
*
*

BREIVIK

(on his feet)

This is offensive!! It's lies! All lies!

JUDGE ARNTZEN

Mr. Breivik, please sit down.

BREIVIK

(finally losing control)

I've never failed at anything! Not one thing in my entire life! I'm not alone. I have many friends! I have never been rejected!

*
*

JUDGE ARNTZEN

Mr. Lippestad, please ask your client to sit down.

BREIVIK

(to LIPPESTAD)

You have to stop this. You're my lawyer. You're supposed to protect me.

LIPPESTAD

They have the right to do this. To submit their own witnesses.

*
*

BREIVIK

But they're filming it.

*

LIPPESTAD

Yes. This is how the system works.

*

BREIVIK

But you need to counter it!

LIPPESTAD

You've had your chance to speak, it's the turn of the families now.
And tomorrow the victims. They have rights too.

*
*
*

BREIVIK

And I have to listen? Just sit here and listen to this?

*
*

LIPPESTAD

If you want to be found sane, you must submit to the system.

*
*

LIPPESTAD toe-to-toe with BREIVIK. Hold on BREIVIK. Watched by the JUDGE, the PROSECUTION, and the FAMILIES. Finally, he relents.

My big sister Bano and I fled Iraq * safe. When I came from Kurdistan - * what you call Iraq - I was just * five years old. I was a refugee. It * took a long time for Norway to feel * like home. I struggled with the language. The climate too. And some people were suspicious of us. Angry that we were here.

LIPPESTAD looks at BREIVIK. No reaction.

SVEINN takes hold of CHRISTIN'S hand.

The courtroom settles.

FAMILY LAWYER

We would like to call Viljar Hanssen.

LIPPESTAD watches as the door at the back of the courtroom opens. VILJAR enters.

He walks to the witness stand. Concentrating on keeping his breathing steady.

His PARENTS watching. LARA too.

LIPPESTAD watches VILJAR approach.

As he approaches the stand, VILJAR sees BREIVIK. His head is down, talking to LIPPESTAD.

VILJAR tries to control his shaking hands. Takes the last steps to the stand. Finally locks eyes with BREIVIK.

For a moment, VILJAR feels himself going back to the island. The sounds of terror and pain. That dark menacing FIGURE looming above him...

He struggles for control. Forces himself not to go there. Holds BREIVIK'S empty stare for the longest moment.

FAMILY LAWYER (CONT'D)

Can you tell us what happened to you on Utøya, Viljar?

VILJAR

Yes. He tried to... He tried to kill me.

(begins to remember)

I remember running away. Trying to find somewhere to hide. Trying to protect my little brother. And I remember being shot.

(using his right hand)

He shot me here, here, here, here, and finally here. In the eye. Five times. I lay on the beach. I was all alone. In a kind of pain I could never imagine.

*
*
*
*

BREIVIK looks up momentarily. Catches VILJAR's eye.

FAMILY LAWYER

But you're here now?

*

VILJAR steels himself, keeping his emotion at bay.

VILJAR

Yes. But everything is different. I've had to relearn how to use my body. Learn to walk again, to feed myself again. I have little use of my left arm. I'm blind in one eye - but that's a relief.

*
*

*

PROSECUTION

A relief?

VILJAR

Oh yes, a relief. Definitely a relief.

(a beat and then)

Because at least now I don't have to look at him.

Sudden laughter. Breaking the spell. BREIVIK looks around the room. Sees EVERYONE laughing. Can't help but smile himself. And VILJAR sees it. Knows he's got through. LIPPESTAD sees too.

VILJAR (CONT'D)

But of course it's not that simple,
I have a fragment of his bullet lodged in my brain, that could kill me at any time.

*

*

*

His voice falters.

VILJAR (CONT'D)

And I don't look like the person I used to. My body. It's broken.
Beyond repair. My self-confidence too. And I have pain that never goes away.

*

*

A beat and then:

*

VILJAR (CONT'D)

Worst of all, he killed Anders and Simon. My best friends. Stopping them from making their mark on the world. They would have made it a better place. I miss them every day.

VILJAR stops, swallowing back his pain, trying to keep control. Head down. EVERYONE watching him. Becoming tearful.

*

VILJAR (CONT'D)

I'm sorry, I didn't want to cry. I so much didn't want to cry in front of him. I wanted to be strong.
Because I do this for them. So they will not be forgotten.

*

*

*

*

VILJAR looks up, right at BREIVIK. Tears, but an unwavering stare.

VILJAR (CONT'D)
 When he shot them and left me alone on the beach, I didn't know if I was living or dying. And I've been stuck there ever since.

*
 *
 *
 *

On BREIVIK, looking right back at him.

VILJAR (CONT'D)
 But now I realise I've got a choice. I still have a family. And friends. And memories. Hopes, dreams, and love.
 (beat)
 And he doesn't. He's completely alone. He's going to rot in prison, whereas I...
 (beat)
 I survived and I choose to live.

And at that moment, BREIVIK looks away. LIPPESTAD sees it.
 And VILJAR sees it too.

When BREIVIK looks back, they lock eyes again. VILJAR knows he's won and BREIVIK knows it too.

VILJAR (CONT'D)
 (to the JUDGE)
 I'm done.

JUDGE
 Do the Defense have any questions?

LIPPESTAD
 (standing)
 No questions.
 (he turns to VILJAR)
 Thank you.

VILJAR leaves the witness box. Sees LARA as he passes.

Out of the courtroom and into the light.

LIPPESTAD sees BREIVIK watching them, as VILJAR is embraced by his PARENTS and TORJE.

FADE TO BLACK:

*

PM alone, reading through the 22nd July Inquiry Report. The weight of it written into his face.

AIDE

The families are waiting for you, Sir.

CUT TO:

247 EXT. INQUIRY HQ - SAME TIME

247

INQUIRY HEAD GJØRV comes out to address a waiting bank of PRESS.

GJØRV

Our conclusions are clear. There were failings on and before the attacks of 22 July. The failure to detect Anders Breivik's activities at an earlier point. The failure to implement effective physical security measures. The failure to respond swiftly enough to the crisis on Utoya Island...

CUT TO:

248 INT. MOD - MEETING ROOM/CORRIDOR - CONTINUOUS

248

The PM walks towards a closed door. Hesitates before opening it.

Inside, he sees: BEREAVED PARENTS. Their LAWYERS too.

The PM sits amongst them.

PRIME MINISTER

(finally)

I'm sorry.

His voice breaks.

PRIME MINISTER (CONT'D)

We should have done better. I should have done better.

For a moment there is silence. Then a MOTHER reaches across the table.

MOTHER

(takes his hand)

I can only speak for myself.

(She looks around. Clearly she speaks for many there)

(MORE)

MOTHER (CONT'D)

Only the terrorist was responsible for what happened on that day. Not you. Only him.

*

The PM looks up, holds her hand tightly, stunned by her grace.

CUT TO:

249 INT. COURTROOM - Day 8 - VERDICT - DAY

BREIVIK standing.

JUDGE ARTNZEN

The court finds Anders Behring Breivik guilty of all charges. And we judge him accountable for his actions. Mr. Breivik is therefore sentenced to indefinite solitary confinement. For as long as he remains a threat to society.

*

LIPPESTAD looks across at his colleagues. INGA and SVEINN for the Prosecution. FAMILY LAWYER for the families. And at the JUDGE.

Knows they all played their roles, to ensure the system prevailed.

He and BREIVIK meet for the last time.

LIPPESTAD

Will you appeal?

BREIVIK

No, there's no need. You did a good job. The job I wanted.

*

LIPPESTAD

There are some formalities. My office will send over the paperwork.

*

BREIVIK

Of course. Do you think you will you visit me?

*

*

LIPPESTAD

I don't think so, Anders.

*

BREIVIK hands back documents.

Then holds out his hand. LIPPESTAD doesn't take it.

BREIVIK

So I guess we're done.

*

*

LIPPESTAD

Yes.

*

*

As he reaches the door:

*

BREIVIK

Geir, I'd do it all again if I could.

*

LIPPESTAD stops. Turns to face him.

LIPPESTAD

You didn't win, Anders. You failed.

*

BREIVIK

(beat and then)

There will be others. To finish what I have started. Norway - Europe - it's crumbling. It's over.

*

*

*

LIPPESTAD

We will stop you.

*

BREIVIK

You can't even see us.

LIPPESTAD

Well we see you now. And we will beat you. My children, our children... they will beat you.

*

Goodbye, Anders.
